During the eighteenth century, there was an incredible upheaval of commercialization in London, England. As a result, English society underwent significant, "changes in attitude and thought", in an attempt to obtain the moral climate of the 1950s — a society on the brink of feminism — and a powerful and revealing account of a woman searching for her own place in a world that had rapidly changed around her.

The Unusual Suspects is also revealing about how much of the contemporary landscape is simply an advanced Ponzi scheme, describing a society which while once fraying at the edges is now collapsing.

As the older of the two maids, she was always more methodical with her process. Aria carefully removed her clean white apron from the shoulder and then slipped the top of her dress off. Her top was now...
